

Dr Shamim Jenner

Clinical Case Director & GP

MBChb dch MRCP distn MLCOM MSc SEM

Expertise

General Practitioner
Musculoskeletal Physician
Medical Osteopath
Teaching and GP Education
Multiple Pain Management, including spinal
Orthopaedic

Profile:

- Dr Jenner is the Doctor and Clinical Director for the team of clinicians at Medicess and has been part of the Medicess team since 2020.
- She works closely with other members of the Medicess Multidisciplinary Team advising, overseeing, recommending and consulting objectively on all aspects of recovery and rehabilitation needs.
- Dr Jenner brings a large and varied range of valuable experience to her role as a Clinical Case Director for Medicess. As a generalist, she can view the client's conditions from multiple angles.
- Dr Jenner brings to Medicess her previous experience of working in Multidisciplinary Teams having previously worked alongside consultant colleagues, of who had a range of specialities, including physiotherapy, occupational therapy and pharmacists and podiatrists.
- She brings over 30 years of practice to the Medicess team having worked in multiple medical environments.
- In addition to her role as Clinical Case Director for Medicess, Dr Jenner continues to practice as a part-time GP Locum in a small number of practices in Somerset.

Background:

- Dr Jenner has practised as a General Practitioner in various posts since 1996 and has been a qualified Medical Professional since 1990.
- She is a high achiever and strong team player who has experience in musculoskeletal medicine, teaching and GP education, treatment of spinal pain and disability, pain management and is fully trained in Minor Ops in General Practice.
- She has been a Nurse Lead, responsible for implementing nursing strategy in GP practices.
- Dr Jenner has a keen interest in developing her skills and professional development regularly; in recent years Dr Jenner has obtained a Master of Science (MSc) in SEM and she is currently undertaking a Master of Arts (MA) in Medical Ethics and Law.
- Dr Jenner regularly completes additional courses to improve her knowledge and expertise. Some examples are, Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS), Post Graduate Module in Sleep Medicine, Musculoskeletal interface services, Leadership Course and GP teaching days in Cardiology, Neurology and Gastroenterology and Functional Bowel Disease Update.

- Dr Jenner has worked globally in South East India as a Medical Student and Chile, South America as a Chief Medical Officer.
- Dr Jenner is dedicated to providing patients with the best medical care available.

Qualifications & Memberships:

- Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery,
- GP with Specialist Interest (GPwSI) Musculoskeletal Medicine,
- Registered on the General Medical Councils (GMC) GP register with Licence to Practice,
- Family Planning Certificate (FPC),
- Diploma in Child Health (DCH),
- MSc Sports and Exercise Medicine,
- Medical Osteopathy course MILCOM,
- Member of the Royal Colleges of Physicians (MRCGP).